

Civil Construction Opportunities

2 Church Bush Road, Kaiapoi

Introducing G&T Construction Ltd Civil Construction and Engineering

G & T Construction Ltd is a privately owned Civil Engineering and Construction company located in Kaiapoi.

We have been operating in the Canterbury region for 28 years. We provide civil construction services for local councils and a large number of private clients and engineering consultants.

Our team comprises:

- Management
- Civil Construction Supervisors
- Certified Welders and Sheet Metal Fabricators
- Plant drivers
- Mobile plant and Equipment Operators
- Mechanics
- Civil Construction Workers

What is Civil Construction?

The Civil Construction industry involves the design, maintenance and commissioning of infrastructure projects that shapes the environment we live and work in.

What is Infrastructure?

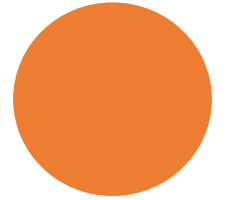

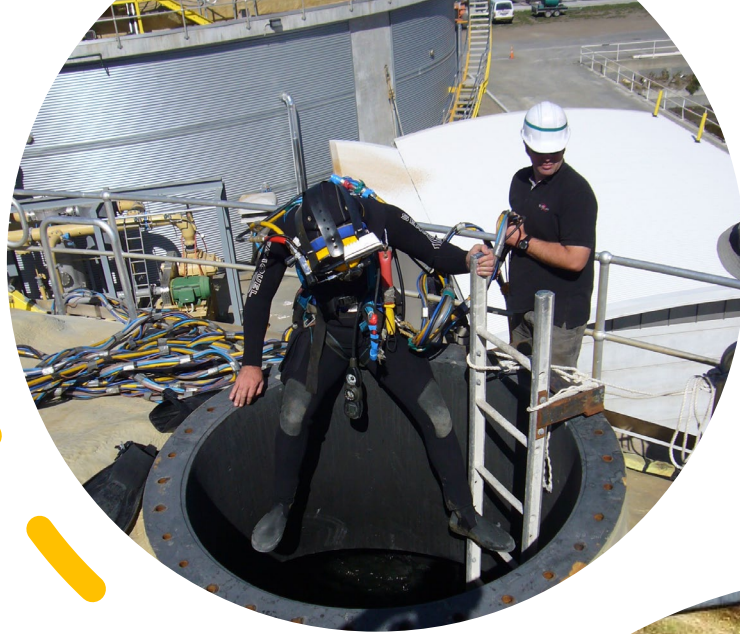

Civil Infrastructure involves the design, management and construction of assets that are critical for core industries.

- Water and wastewater
- Treatment plants
- Water reservoir maintenance
- Bridge construction
- Large pumping stations
- Communication network installations
- Transport systems
- Roading infrastructure

What services do G&T Construction provide?

- Bespoke project consultation
- In-house project management
- In-house design and costing
- In-house steelworks fabrication
- Mechanical and structural fit-outs
- Ground earthworks stabilisation
- Sheet piling
- Deep drainage preparation
- Pipe laying, concrete, steel, PVC
- Civil and commercial carpentry
- Concrete construction
- Crane works and heavy haulage
- Earthworks

What local projects have G&T completed?

- Design and build of the Rangiora Wastewater Treatment Plant
- Mandeville Water Headworks upgrade
- Waimakariri DC Oxford Wastewater Treatment Plant Flowmeter installation
- Kate Valley Landfill – new landfill cell build
- Waimakariri DC Rakihura Pump station
- Christchurch CC Pond irrigation repair

What skills would I need to join the G&T team?

- Practical thinker
- Strong work ethic
- Good communication skills
- Willingness to learn
- Working in teams
- Interest in civil construction
- Possess a learner or full driving licence

What duties would I be carrying out?

- Carpentry works
- Steel work
- Pipework and drain laying
- Concrete and formwork
- Working with power tools and small plant
- Work with machine operators and drivers
- Work under a competency training programme
- General labouring duties

What is G&T Construction offering you?

- External current industry training
- Support with licence endorsements
- Internal supervision, competency and training with large plant and equipment
- Ongoing NZEA training and support
- Option for certified welders certification
- Safe and friendly working environment
- Stability with a locally owned and operated business
- Investment in all our employees
- Equipment and technology – we own and operate modern plant and equipment
- Good starting salary
- Annual review
- Room for growth and interested in new ideas and input from our team
- A focus on Health and Safety in work

G and T Construction Careers

Contact Steph on 027 315 5176 or visit our website or Facebook page for more details.

<https://www.gtconstruction.co.nz/contact>

<https://www.facebook.com/gtconstructionteam>